The Charlottetown Branch of The Federal Superannuates National Association (FSNA) Award

DESCRIPTION

This award is established by the Charlottetown Branch of the Federal Superannuates National Association (FSNA), at the University of Prince Edward Island to support students in achieving their educational goals. The FSNA is comprised of more than 100,000 members. The FSNA represents retired members of the public service of Canada, the Canadian Forces, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and other Federal groups. The national not-for-profit organization was founded in 1963.

GENERAL CRITERIA

This award will be given annually to a returning UPEI student who is enrolled in a public service profession such as nursing, education, food and nutritional sciences, radiography, and/or police sciences. The recipient will have a commendable academic record and should not be receiving another major award in the same year. In the event of two equally qualified candidates, preference may be given to the student with financial need.
